POLICE DECLINE CIVIL BUSINESS

Claiming Owner of Wagon Does Private Justice With Baseball Bat.

WRIT OF REPLEVIN NEEDED

"The police department must not be used as an agency for the settlement of disputes, which are of a purely civil nature," said Superintendent Birmingham, this morning, in regard to the attempt of Thomas Semon to have George Thompson arrested for taking a wagon last night from Semon's barn, both men claiming ownership of the wagon. Semon thought the most effective way to stop Thompson from getting away with the wagon was to hit him over the head with a small baseball bat. The blow opened a wound in Thompson's cranium, and after he had taken the wagon to a place of safety, he hastened to the Emergency hospital where he was treated by Dr. Bennett.

Although Thompson made a complaint no warrant was issued; but it was scarcely necessary as all the parties were present in the court this morning and waited patiently during the lengthy session. When Judge Foster had left the bench they made their presence known and continued to do so for the ensuing half hour. Prosecuting Attorney DeLaney rolled the case because he felt that the question of Semon's ownership of the wagon was a civil action. It will be necessary to have a writ of replevin issued and in this manner the doubtful ownership may be determined.

This action on Attorney DeLaney's part was not at all pleasing to Mr. Semon, who stormed about the court room during the informal hearing and in the end went down stairs and told Superintendent Birmingham all about it. The Superintendent referred him to the prosecuting attorney, but Semon said that he could get no redress there, and expressed himself rather forcibly to the effect that he was a tax payer and should be considered as such.

Semon claims that some years ago he purchased the wagon from D. E. McNamara and some time later allowed Thompson to take it for a short period. Now the latter says that it was given him and that he was permitted to keep the wagon in Semon's barn. Thompson was ever present this morning and no matter where Semon went Thompson was sure to follow and give his side of the controversy. The wagon has disappeared and only Thompson knows its whereabouts.

Weather Indications.

(Special from United Press.)
New Haven, July 30.—Forecast: Fair, except possibly local showers to-night and Saturday.
The disturbance that was central yesterday morning in the lake region has passed out the St. Lawrence valley. Local showers have occurred during the past 24 hours in the lake region and the southern and western sections. The heaviest rainfall reported during the past 24 hours was 2.78 inches in Kansas City, Mo. Temperatures of 90 degrees or above were reported generally in all sections south of Chicago except along the Atlantic coast. The highest east of the Rocky Mountains was 100 degrees at Dodge, Kas.

Conditions favor for this vicinity fair weather except slight chance for local showers. The temperature will continue high but will be slightly lower Saturday than it is to-day.

A bed bug crawling on your children's clothes when away from home does not speak well of that home, but instead gives to your friends a lasting impression of neglect and carelessness in that home and is often whispered around among other friends of the family. Such unpleasant comment could have been avoided if you had used Cyrus Presto Killer for Bedbugs. The cost is only 25 cents and would have effectually cleaned the bed.
